

Run 2195, Monday 20th July, 2009

Location: Scout Hall, Maitland Avenue, Davidson

Hares: Nautilus & Hanoi Bill

“A wee tot ‘o rum ...”

The walkers had a quick warm-up with an up-hill start while the runners set off through a short bush track to the pipeline. Some were horrified by the thought of going down the pipeline trail but were fortunately spared & the trail went up-hill. Even this early on in the run, the pack was strung out & Changi, ignoring the check, led Music Man, Hoarse Whisperer & Captain Bligh left along John Oxley Drive. A short false down Harper Place caught athletes, Witches Tit & Super Glue nicely, allowing Colonel Sanders to catch up & re-live former glory days at the front of the pack. As Pee Dub led a band of merry men, Copra, Payling, Smiley (with a few Kokoda'd ribs) Wanker & Scud into the bush trail, the strains of Irish's horn could be heard on the cool night air, signalling that the walkers weren't that far away.

The check at Prahran St. worked well but Le Merde Petit, the ever vocal Goonshow, & Music Man wisely headed up-hill and on-trail. Jock The Sock, whilst tackling the nasty climb up Roselands commented breathlessly on how glad he was that women had been kept out of the Posh. In his opinion, the only women allowed in the Hash, are those that you have to pay for!

Through the wet & muddy soccer pitch, the boys headed to Glen Street where two checks welcomed both walkers & runners as their trails united. By now the walkers were well on their way – except for Bumcrack, who was walking backwards. Good open roads meant the faster boys had left the others in their wake

At the back of the tennis courts Tooth Fairy led Colonel Sanders through the park to Haigh St. & then left uphill, yet again. A tot of rum after some nasty climbs was welcome...a nice touch Nautilus & Hanoi, but a shot of rum can't make up for a lack of arrows, as many of the boys had trouble finding the trail.

After the check at the Cemetery, Wanker, grumbling about the hard run, was heard to say that this was the only down that he remembered. Box Kite, quick as a flash, said that “...going down should always be memorable...”. I'll drink to that.

At this point, the runners were sent on a complex & well reccied shallow 'W' course where at the furthest most point, a triple check-back earned high praise for it's execution.

God Knows, having successfully completed a combination of walkers & runners trails & still looking fresh, declared proudly that “...there are slower guys in the Hash than me, but the bastards just don't turn up!”

Footnote:

Both walkers and runners were well catered for with very well reccied and thought out trails. A wide easily run bush trail early was welcomed by the runners, but a lack of arrows & inconsistency of marking, detracted a little from this being a really top run

But hey, didn't Nautilus & Hanoi Bill pick a winner with the atmospheric old scout hall, open fire & ample BBQ'd dinner in a perfect bush setting. It doesn't get much better than this, on yet another rain free night.

TM's Tips:

It's been said before, but always lay arrows where they can be seen (not where cars might park over them) and be consistent in where you lay the narrows. If you start laying arrows on the footpath on the left then (as much as possible) continue to lay arrows on the left. But as always in winter - too much chalk is never enough.

Dummy Spit to the Editor

Dear Sirs,

Has memory of the Turnbull fake email debacle already faded?

Are the laws of defamation to be treated in such a cavalier fashion?

Is the 2009 committee to be known evermore as the most gullible and naïve in Hash history?

When mud is slung does some of it stick?      Is the Pope not a Catholic?

Sirs, to suggest that I would break the habits of a lifetime and actually praise a Hash committee (and in print!) is so clearly absurd as to be beyond any rational or irrational consideration!      My reputation has been severely impugned. (What reputation? ed.)

You sirs have been the pawns of some malicious and resentful Hash person, eager to foul my standing in the community. Possibly a sub 15 year member to whom I have not yet paid any attention.

Even worse, is this part of a desperate strategy, a committee mercifully near the end of its term, creating fake correspondence, both as a form of gross self aggrandisement, and as attempted blackmail to force a 41 year member to accept a 2010 committee position!

Gross! Obscene!

I demand a Royal Commission, a groveling apology and honorary life membership.

Failing this you will hear from my lawyers.

Yours in frothing indignation!

Irish Connection (former Pres. HC, JM, HS)

Editors Note: Honoriable Life not bloody likely!

Down Downs:

Hares: Hanoi Bill & Nautilus

Hanoi Bill: for slipping in a milestone birthday

Frenchie: for suggesting Hanoi Bill should get a box of chalk for his birthday

Goonshow: for complaining about the beer - again

TicToc: for claiming his new runners were recycled oldies

Yakkity Yak: for using up too much of our new first aid kit

Irish: for pestering your overworked scribe with voluminous correspondence
