

Run 2201, Monday 31st August, 2009

Location: Bantry Bay Shops, Bantry Bay Road, Bantry Bay

Hares: Larry Adler & San Francisco

“Larry addled by San Francisco...”

Larry Adler & San Francisco make a great pair. Larry as chief in charge of reccie-ing & bucket and San Fran in charge of strategy. The run being within Mooch-able territory, a big pack of 60 Hounds turned out, all eager to pick up a scent of who the new President might be. But ‘mums the word’ – yes, you heard it here first, the new President is to be Scuds’ mum!!!

From the first blast of Irish’s horn, the runners were off on what proved to be a fast track. The first check-back at Retreat Road caught Flying Scot, Hoarse Whisperer, Plunger & Duckweave (who?) all having to double back to the power lines & through the grassy track. Music Man, who had obviously had some long lingering lust recently re-kindled, had been pumping fellow Hashmen for “info on the nympho”...now it was Calici’s turn as they strolled toward the footbridge, high above the Wakehurst Parkway. God knows what Calici said about this chic, but I think Music pole-vaulted over the Parkway. (Just give her a call Music – then you’ll really know.) By the way, Milt just loves the fully caged-in footbridge “cos it’ll stop the bastards from short-cutting”.

The Aquatic Centre is familiar territory to most & the Hares ambitiously tried to lure the runners onto the baseball oval. Few however were fooled, and it was on along the car-park where Swampy, Salt Peter & Jock The Sock led the runners, with Robbo showing a turn of speed, torn between listening to Music’s juicy discussions or pretending to be an athlete. Through the car park and into some ‘virgin territory’ (they had to get that in) where the runners were sent left and the walkers right, neatly around a circular road that saw both trails merging to lead to the pipeline track. At Allambie Road, Melbourne Max, Darwin and BTG were joined by Farmer Jones to follow the walkers trail left whilst Spud, Scud & Tic Toc stayed on the runners trail across the road, dangerously close to the Home trail.

While the walkers were virtually On Home from this point, the runners trail wound around Owen Stanley, Goroka and Buna Place – all bringing back memories of Smiley’s recent assault on the Kokoda Track – or was it the track that assaulted Smiley?

The Hounds made (yet again) good use of small off-road bush to create an excellent run. The maze-like trails in Goroka Park had Centrepont, Pee Dub, Maximums Minimus, Goanna & Box Kite floundering around in the dark, despite the TM calling them on. At least Tooth Fairy took notice & emerged unscathed. Once back on Allambie Road, e-Shit, Cinderella and Spud were taken-in by a sort of ‘false’ loop at Arnhem Road to re-emerge at Allambie Road and on Home, trailing behind the lead walkers, Payling & Simmo who were Home in a comfortable 50 minutes.

The stragglers, being the aforementioned Maze Maniacs, came Home to an all but empty bucket with the Hares in danger of being marked down severely on the run. However, deft wrist-work by the Hares soon had the Bucket topped-up and the Hounds slaking their thirst as they contemplated yet another Thai On On.

Footnote:

All but one winter run this year has had a serving of good off-road stuff and used as Larry Adler and San Francisco did, it makes for great trails – remember the days when using bush on winter runs was “verbotem”? The Hounds were full of praise for a well set run with some clever check-backs; the final one at the Aquatic Centre on the home trail was definitely not appreciated by Tooth Fairy and Box Kite, who were neatly caught. Another Classic Hash Run – thanks to San Francisco & Larry Adler.

Another great run, thanks Hares

The OxFam good cheer squad

A well earned beer

Polished off right smart

Projecting his story!

Why did all the women leave?

When all these handsome men are available

And he grabbed her like this

A Pee Dub impersonator about to read to us

Which holy man is this blessing the gathering?

What am I doing here with this lot?

You want me to tickle you where?
