Is that a Lightning at the Crack in Killarney Heights?

The Run

The old hand hares Lightning and Bum Crack had dialled in a perfect evening at a marvellous setting Killarney Heights. Eager beavers Carefree and Swampy thought they would jump the gun and set off in the wrong direction.

When the pack set off they all looked lost meandering without purpose around Killarney Oval, which looked like the Veteran Masters Olympics Re-run. The pack lead by the Scot finally found the trail past the building site and then downpatrick? A strange thing for a macho bunch of men to be doing. On on into the bush, and what good country it was. JackTR led a pack including walkers form Mosman and Manly as Irish blue his horn.

Cinders, Saltpeter, Plunger and Superglue were all taken with the magnificent water views and managed to find every false trail. WC decided the walker's trail would do even though the helicopter drops made the runners split look tempting. Payling led Pee Dub and Centerpoint through behind the houses harassing young children as they went. Some excuse about a long walk on Sunday around the car park of the Sands Hotel. The runners at this stage rounded up by Music Man, who had put Frenchie in charge of the walkers, were on their way down to the munitions dump at Bantry Bay.

Lurch was a late starter and like most of the pack managed to find his way home as the light was fading (not pausing to make use of the Cinders Gloomng Palour). BTG and God Knows decided they were on the Oxfam 24hr Walk and just managed to finish before midnight on the third day. Did they stop for a pedicure?

On On

Continuing the Sydney international Food Fair we all enjoyed the Thai cuisine and heard of the great Olympic achievements of our own Kitty Litter and E Shit. And then there was that moment. Yes we run at the Hash and enjoy the drinks and dinner, but it is the company and friends that really define the Hash. Imagine then how the president felt as he caught up with Scud, and was flatten by a ripper that brought a tear to the eye. Calici could barely make it home and has been sent to Yangon, believed to be the source of masters of the foul odour. My advice, stay in front of the Missile.

Check out the photos, thanks to TT.
