Did Changi Burke and Pilko Wills find new territory in luscious Berrilee?

The Run

Travelling through the lush green rolling hills of the NSW countryside I was convinced this was going to be a bad idea. As we passed Newcastle, an hour later (while Goonshow turned right, ask him about it) I was convinced I was going to write a scathing run report. But no, in truth it was well worth the drive. For Lightning (twenty minutes away) it seemed he should have ridden one of his wife's horses to the country event.

The two explorer hares Changi Burke and Pilko Wills slashed their way through paddocks, cliffs ridges and deep, deep tight valleys only found in Virgins and virgin territory. With an impotence theme some wondered if anything longer than a flaccid dick was hacked to size with a machete.

A local farmer (Smith a close cousin of Farmer Jones) was quite taken aback by Changi Burke and his huge machete, finding it hard to believe a lone bushwalker would need such a weapon. An offer of dinner cooked by renowned bush chief Pilko Wills appeased him.

So off we headed down the track through Famer Smith's farm to lush pastures where Witches Tit, Cinderella and Cockup Camilla (maybe this is his hash name for good), found all the checks and cow patties before heading up to the ridge.

Having lost walkers trail (or was it the trail that was lost?) WC and Darwin Don returned to camp after viewing the magnificent valley. Swampy, Carefree (still recovering from his birthday "cake"), Wrapper and Khyber pushed on through the winding trail and DOWN and DOWN we went to the bottom of the gorge. As we headed back up again, Yakkity took the climb in his stride. The climb was very steep and Goonshow was so exhausted he thought he would wait for a "Street Car Named Desire" to help him on his ascent, but of course it never came nor did Kate but the desire continued.

The three ropes placed at strategic spots by our explorers helped Pee Dub and our Birthday President Calici but the Grape Ape thought they were only for girl guides and struggled on alone. Finally reaching the summit we followed the fire trail home to a great bush BBQ.

On On

Home made soup, local Berrilee chicken kebabs and home made cheesecake sourced from the Arcadia Country Women's Association. The meal was so appetising that Little Shit even honoured us with his presence and XXXX said he was unable to eat that much tucker. Resident photographer Tic Toc having returned from Bali, will show us his holiday picks next week, this week adds his colour to the news

We were joined by the new socialite, Mr P. Dub, who has made the D list of the Sydney Scene appearing in the weekend glossies surrounded by many semi naked girls. Maybe there will be a rush for hash motorbikes. A great night was had by all and the big effort by the hares was all worthwhile. "It was a great lead up to Christmas in the bush (can you spot the tree), with three deep holes, four yawning gashes and arsepaper in many a pair of trees."
