Another successful DonCon construction

The Run

Monday night at Yannilla Oval Wahroong, the fifty something prime athletes are restless. They've been anticipating and training all week, the Hares LURCH and FARMER JONES, haven't let them down a rugged run of fire trails, bush tracks and creek crossings has been set!

The walkers led by CAREFREE with his new French Long Red Socks and BUMCRACK looking like Little Red Riding hood head off down the incline. A clever trail keeps the pack together as KITTY, PLUNGER, SUPERGLUE and CHANGI find every On Back. At one stage FRENCHIE and CHASTITY are almost leading the whole group down into the picturesque valley. "Oh what magnificent journeys we experience on a Monday night" (anonymous, not Anonymous).

FLYING SCOTSMAN is stepping out from a two month foot injury and SPUD and HOARSE WHISPER discussed old times and new earth moving equipment. On the climb up the hill WHITE SHIT led CENTREPOINT who now gives private DIDGERIDOO lessons in his car and maybe in competition with DIVINE BROWN. Push up to top of the hill and then back down to another creek crossing. Following the ridge line suddenly the runners and GOONSHOW witnessed the most spectacular sight the whole city skyline ensconced within the native bush, a sight to behold even PEE DUB, TYRE FRUCK and CAPTAIN BLIGH commented on this world class view. WRAPAROUND and ILLUCIFER admired each others identical shirts.

Then a good solid climb home to the Bucket where everyone including TIC TOC and KITTY agreed the oval was much too windy so the Caring Committee chose to move dinner to the best restaurant in Fox Valley Road and just at that moment, to everyone's surprise MAJOR DISASTER arrived home.

Diner was tasty and filling, especially after PRESIDENT CALICI gave the waitress some good educational lessons in speaking Thai. That was sufficient to get the dinner flowing much to the enjoyment of logistics expert GOANNA and the clever Hares FARMER and LURCH, who chose to eat with YAKKITY YAK and LOST PATROL in the outdoor garden.

SLAAB was welcomed back and GRAPE APE apologised for wearing his hat at dinner unlike LAST CARD who was giving us an introduction to next weeks spectacular – "AUSTRALIA DAY EXTRAVAGANZA RUN ~ with ENTERTAINMENT ~ FREE TEE SHIRTS ~ SEAFOOD, DAMPER, LAMB and more ~ NOT TO BE MISSED" so with a little humour...
