

RUN 2237 - TWO BANKERS TAKE INTEREST IN THE STAIRS AT NAREMBURN

It was a balmy warm night in May at Naremburn shops. Never had such a crowd gathered here before and the locals thought Kevin Rudd was appearing but obviously too many people were here for that.

The hares WANKER and COPRA researched a great run through the back streets of Cammeray and winding bush trails near Northbridge.

The pack tested the strength of the pedestrian bridge which had never supported so many fit bodies before and it managed to survive the load.

On crossing the freeway the runners CINDERS and WITCH'S TIT, took the pack in the wrong direction and luckily MAJOR DISASTER and CAPTAIN BLIGH finally got us back on track.

Down and down we went, which was the first time in a long while for many people.

HANOI BILL, YOUR CHOICE, having just circumnavigated Tasmania and PILKO finally found the picturesque trail down to Tunks Park which WRAPPER and KHYBER thought resembled the Friday Night Run but surely they were imagining this.

After a short game or touch football and chasing some dogs or maybe the dog's owners SPUD and JUNGLE JIM found the giant staircase out of the park, but IRISH and PHEASANT PLUCKER complained because the Walk was too short and not enough steps.

GOONSHOW led LITTLE SHIT, who was torchless through the track around PRIMROSE PARK and YAKKITY and JOCK found even some more steps which led us up home.

MR NEAT discussed his great sailing adventure exploring the South China Sea from Broome and BUNNY couldn't stop talking about his romantic expectations at the weekend away in BATHURST.

Back at the bucket some locals commented on IRISH'S shorts and thought it was a pyjama party for a senior citizens home but PLUNGER assured them it was only a fancy dress party. Centrepoint made a quick exit to do some midnight gardening.

The Thai meal was very good and even ,take home your own bottle XXXX and GENERAL DE GAULLE and SIMMO could not eat everything on their plate .

But the big news item introduced by the three BANGER SISTERS....which has been sold to NEW IDEA for a record amount of money , was the wonderful romantic Wedding Nuptials at Byron Bay of JACK THE RIPPER and his beloved KATE who loses her hash name as she is now a Hashmans wife .

ALL THE HASH WISH YOU BOTH ALL THE HAPPINESS IN THE FUTURE

PRESIDENT CALICI discussed again the fantastic weekend planned at Bathurst and the HARES WANKER and COPRA organised another great Monday Night.
