

SYDNEY HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

Castro's Run Report; 4 November, 2019, Run 2734

Hares: Choice & Tic Toc (Honorary)

The "100 Acres" Run

In the words of one Hashman, "... never has so much distance been gotten out of so little territory since Christopher Robin made his way through the '100 acre Wood." The weather turned out fine resulting in a good turnout of members for the run. A pre-run argument between Tic Toc and a resident for illegal parking threatened to turn nasty but was quickly resolved. And what a back yard offered up by Your Choice!! With clover leafs, circles and loops it's not surprising that the pack felt always lost in this western wilderness. The walker pack always together with the runners passing regularly. A Hashman who took a turn for the worst received assistance from others who took in turns to get him home safely before it turned dark. As for the run, well it had plenty of turns. For his extensive efforts in attempting to lay a new run that would confound all but the bravest and most clever, Tic Toc was named honorary co-Hare.

Visitors Welcomed

Left to right: Pilco with Rodney, 777 with John, and great to have Tooth Fairy back.

Run 2734, Cumberland State Forest, 7.41 KM

Seriously, just how impressive is this trail for its well-marked twists and turns.

The OnOn & Down Downs

The OnOn turned out to be a beauty with the Joint Masters turning on a great meal, choice of salmon or steak, and Your Choice turned his hand to produce his trademark fruit salad. We still have a fine supply of German beers from the Oktoberfest Run, and made a bit of a dent in that, along with the usual fine wines. Down Downs led by Acting President Pilco:

- Your Choice, as Hare and Host extraordinaire.
- Tic Toc, by default, for his extensive survey of the run which continued until after everyone else had finished dinner.
- Visitor, Pee Dub's friend Rodney. (OnSec note: Unless you are lucky and the committee forgets, which is always likely, visitors tend to get a Down Down only on their first visit)
- Calicivirus, for being confused with the captain of the Springboks
- Scud, for his rapid recovery after explicitly disobeying doctor's orders to refrain from physical exertion and then going kayaking in a howling gale and injuring himself.

"Glamour" Returns!!!

And here you thought that all that would be on offer from the Committee would be "Food Porn". Here you go lads, and better than just a handful of snaps, one of the most viewed links ever, CLIT HERE

Humour

Two Irish nuns were sitting at traffic light in their car when a bunch of rowdy drunks pulls up alongside of them. "Hey, show us yer tits, yebloody penguins!" shouts one of the drunks. The Mother Superior turns to Sister Immaculata, "I don't think they know who we are, show them yer cross."

So Sister Immaculata rolls down her window and shouts, "Screw off ye little fookin wankers, before I come over there and rip yer balls off!" Sister Immaculata looks back at the Mother Superior and asks, "Was that cross enough?"

Reality Humour

With thanks to Moishe, who spotted this sign which had evidently been posted with us in mind – really? And to Tic Toc for spotting this bit of espionage under the sea.
