

SYDNEY HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

Jack the Ripper's Run Report

February 3rd 2020 Run 2747

Gentlemen,

Hello Boys, Good news, Castro hopped off that Wuhan flight last week and parachuted into Lord Howe, he may return next week.

Pre Run

Two Boyz in their party dresses : Molly's was paid for by us taxpayers and Flying Scotsman's was a flag stolen from the Chinese Embassy

The Run : Lurching into February with a Sunbeam looking over us.

We were warned it would be a long run and walk, that was true...

We have wanted new young members, now that we have a few, we need to avoid their being affected by the Lurch virus which results in their mates suffering a shortness of breath and sore legs after 90 minutes in the boosch. Colonel Sanders eagerness to mix new members with more experienced hashers can have unintended consequences as occurred last night. It wasn't bad, wonderful country, so wild . ...and we got to see so much of it...

Smart walkers set out at 6.10 down the Warrimoo Track... and down and down to Cowan Creek. Dumb walkers, including yours truly, set off with the runners at 6.30. On the descent there was a view stop with a seat occupied by Peedub and XXXX. This was the turnaround point for some.

Further down some walkers found the walkers track and got home relatively unscathed, some walkers were lost for the last 30 minutes, and were out a long time.

The runners crossed Cowan Creek, then fire trails, bush bashing, false summits and finally emerged at the Sphinx on Bobbin Head Road Turramurra, then more bush bashing to Royal Turramurra Golf course and then down Bucky's vertical descent of about a month ago, descents like this are only needed once in a lifetime, not twice in a summer. Some unfortunate walkers who unintentionally did the runners trail completed this descent in the dark, they shall be nameless; Tic Toc, Goanna and JT Ripper.

Another interminable ascent then there was a light up there in the bush and someone calling "onon". We thought we had found someone lost. Imagine our delight to find Sunbeam out searching for us and then to lead us home. Right on 2 hours with no stops for checks.... almost perfect timing, Really great country and mostly very well marked. Thanks Lurch and Sunbeam

The On On

Dinner was served undercover at a nearby oval
Excellent steaks and salads, followed by tiramisu, fruit salad and i-scream Payling is the salad king and Pilko is Misstake, oops, Mr Steak seconds were good too

I asked my wife if I was the only one she'd been with.

She said yes, all the others had been nines and tens...

He said ... Shall we try swapping positions tonight ?

She said ... Thats a good idea - you stand by the ironing board and I'll sit on the sofa.

This one's for Major Disaster and The Colonel;

The greatest days of the British Empire:

In the greatest days of the British Empire, a new commanding officer was sent to a jungle outpost to relieve the retiring colonel.

After welcoming his replacement and showing the courtesies (gin and tonic, cucumber sandwiches) that protocol decrees, the retiring colonel said,

"You must meet Captain Smithers, my right-hand man, God, he's really the strength of this office. His talent is simply boundless."

Smithers was summoned and introduced to the new CO, who was surprised to meet a toothless, hairless, scabbed and pockmarked specimen of humanity, a particularly unattractive man less than three foot tall.

"Smithers, old man, tell your new CO about yourself."

"Well, sir, I graduated with honours from Sandhurst, joined the regiment and won the Military Cross and Bar after three expeditions behind enemy lines.

I've represented Great Britain in equestrian events and won a Silver Medal in the middleweight division of the Olympics. I have researched the history of..."

Here the colonel interrupted, "Yes, yes, never mind that Smithers, the CO can find all that in your file. Tell him about the day you told the witch doctor to get fucked .....
